1   You're watching BBC News breaking news this hour. Israel's defence minister says it's launched
2   a pre-emptive attack against Iran. Israel Katz declared a special and permanent state
3   of emergency in all areas of Iran and closed the country's airspace. An Israeli defence
4   official says the attack has been coordinated with the U.S. and had been planned for months.
5   People can be seen coming from buildings in Tehran and people have reportedly been running 6   away in panic there. Mehrabad airport just outside Tehran has also come under attack.
7   Iran's Supreme Leader Ali Hamenei is said to not be in Tehran. The U.S. embassy in Israel
8   said the attack follows weeks of tensions in the region with the U.S. forces massing 9   around Iran and President Trump threatening to attack unless he agrees to dismantle his 10  nuclear program.
11  Let's now speak to the International Crisis Group's Iran project director Ali Vaez who 12  joins us from Geneva. Thank you for joining us on BBC News. A lot of people had been expecting 13  an attack like this but we're hearing from an Israeli defence official that the operation
14  had been planned months ago and the date had been decided weeks ago. Does that surprise 15  you?
16  Not really but it is going to have a very negative impact on the perceptions about the reliability 17  of the United States as a negotiating partner because the U.S. was engaged once again in 18  a redux of 2025 and negotiations with Iran. Another round was scheduled for Monday and 19  now it appears that diplomacy was once again used as a cover for war.
20  Do we have a sense of what the goal, what the objective could be for any military strike 21  at the moment?
22  Look, first of all, if this is framed as a preventative war or a preemptive war, it
23  doesn't make any sense because President Trump after the 12-day war in June of 2025 said 24  that the Iranian nuclear program was completely obliterated. Prime Minister Netanyahu said that 25  Iran's missile program was set back in a very significant way. If President Trump wanted
26  to claim that he was going to the rescue of the Iranian protesters, will the Iranian 27  regime committed a bloody massacre and crushed those protests? So it's really unclear what was being prevented, what was being preempted. But one thing is clear. I think this is an
